RE: County of Steuben, Local Law 11, 2000, filed 01/02/2001

Local Law No. ELEVEN of the year 2000

A local law PROVIDING AN EXEMPTION FOR THE CAPITAL CONSTRUCTION COSTS WITH RESPECT TO RESIDENCY BY THE PARENT OR GRANDPARENT OF A TAXPAYER IN CERTAIN CASES.

Be it enacted by the LEGISLATURE of the County

City of STEUBEN as follows:

SECTION 1. Legislative Intent. The legislature recognizes the role of the family in the care of the aging and the contribution to family life that can be made by encouraging the aging to share their decades of wisdom and experience with the youth of their families. Although the nursing home provides a valuable service to the community, even the high cost of such care cannot replace the family environment. The legislature hereby finds that it is in the best social and economic interests of the County of Steuben to encourage the care of the aging to be provided within the family. To that end, by providing the following exemption it is the intent to so encourage families to provide for their aging.

SECTION 2. Assessment exemption for living quarters for parent or grandparent.
(a) The County of Steuben does hereby provide for an exemption from taxation to the extent of any increase in assessed value of residential property resulting from the construction or reconstruction of such property for the purpose of providing living quarters for a parent or grandparent, who is sixty-two (62) years of age or older. Such exemption shall not exceed (1) the increase in assessed value resulting from construction or reconstruction of such property, or (2) twenty percent (20%) of the total assessed value of such property as improved, or (3) twenty percent (20%) of the median sale price of residential property as reported in the most recent sales statistical summary published by the state board for the county in which the property is located, whichever is less.

(b) No such exemption shall be granted unless:
(i) The property is within the geographical area in which such construction or reconstruction is permitted; and
(ii) The residential property so constructed or reconstructed is the principal place of residence of the owner.

(c) Such exemption shall be applicable only to construction or reconstruction, which occurred subsequent to August 30, 2000 and shall only apply during taxable years during which at least one such parent or grandparent maintains a primary place of residence in such living quarters.

(If additional space is needed, attach pages the same size as this sheet, and number each.)
(d) Such exemption from taxation shall be granted upon an application made annually, upon a form to be promulgated by the state board, by the owner of such property to the assessor of the city, town, village or having the power to assess property for taxation on or before the appropriate taxable status date of such city, town, village. If the assessor is satisfied that the property is entitled to an exemption pursuant to this section, he/she shall approve the application and such residential improvements shall be exempt from taxation and special ad valorem levies as provided in this section.

(e) For the purposes of this section, the term “parent or grandparent” shall be deemed to include the natural or adopted grandparents and parent of the owner or the spouse of the owner.

(f) Any conviction of having made any willful false statement in the application for such exemption shall result in the revocation thereof, be punishable by a civil penalty of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) and shall disqualify the applicant or applicants from further exemption for a period of five (5) years.

SECTION 3. Effective Date. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to real property having a taxable status date on or after the first day of January next succeeding the date on which this act shall have become a law.
