Directions: Answer parts A, B, C, and D to create your very own emergency plan! Then share your ideas with your family and store this document in a safe place.

A. Write down 3-5 weather emergencies that can happen in your area.
1. _____________________________________
2. _____________________________________
3. _____________________________________
4. _____________________________________
5. _____________________________________

B. You now need to pack a small bag that you can use in case one of the weather emergencies you listed above happens. What will you add to the bag? Can you think of at least 8 items? The first has been done for you.

1. ___Flashlight________________   Additional Items:
2. ___________________________                      _________________________
3. ___________________________             _________________________
4. ___________________________   _________________________
5. ___________________________   _________________________
6. ___________________________   _________________________
7. ___________________________   _________________________
8. ___________________________   _________________________
C. If separated in an emergency, what is the meeting place outside of the home?

_______________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________

D. With a family member, reread and answer these questions again. Write down their responses using another colored pen/pencil. Then, put this worksheet in a safe place to use again in case of emergency.