

ABOUT THE BABY CAFÉ

OPEN: Every Friday, 9:00 am - 10:30 am

Empire Room at the Dormann Library, 101 W. Morris Street, Bath

The Bath Baby Café is a FREE resource for everyone: pregnant women, breastfeeding moms, and all families to get support from local organizations. The Baby Café offers the opportunity to share experiences with other moms and for social activities for babies and children. Bring a friend!

MEET THE STAFF

The Baby Café is staffed by the friendly faces seen below, and all are specially trained to help moms with breastfeeding questions and other questions related to growing babies and children. Moms will get answers from a Certified Lactation Consultant (CLC) or our very own International Board Certified Lactation Consultant (IBCLC).

- ★ ProAction WIC
- ★ Healthy Families
- ★ Steuben County Public Health
- ★ S²AY Rural Health Network

Free Diapers*

Free diapers in many sizes are available at the Bath Baby Café for parents who need them. Stop by the café with your baby any Friday.

Free Charm Bracelets*

*The first time a mom visits the Baby Café she is given a charm bracelet and one charm. Charms are also given for reaching breastfeeding milestones at 1, 3, 6, and 12 months. Additional charms are given on the 2nd and 3rd visits to the café. While supplies last.

Support and More

Moms offer great support to other moms because they have similar experiences. With the added staff support, the Baby Café offers a safe and welcoming place for all those funny questions that come up with babies. Enjoy free snacks and drinks too.
