Executive Order No. 203
New York State Police Reform and Reinvention Collaborative Plan

January 2021

I. INTRODUCTION:

On June 12, 2020, Governor A. Cuomo issued an executive order directing municipalities that employ police officers to actively engage stakeholders in the local community and develop locally approved plans for the strategies, policies and procedures of local police agencies. In accordance with this order, the Steuben County Sheriff’s Office in conjunction with the Cities of Corning and Hornell, Villages of Addison, Bath, Canisteo, Hammondsport, Painted Post and Wayland, and the Town of Cohocton, entered a collaborative effort to move through a county-wide process to enact police reform plans.

A. Department Profile:

We strive to meet the public safety needs of the citizens of Steuben County in the most effective and efficient manner possible.
B. Municipality Demographics:

Steuben County is a large, rural county consisting of approximately 1,400 square miles delineated into 2 cities, 14 villages and 32 townships with a population of approximately 95,000 people. Both cities and one village have full-time police departments, 5 villages and one town have part-time police departments and two towns have constabularies. SUNY Corning also employs peace officers. The Steuben County Sheriff’s Office is the local police agency for the remaining areas of the county and provides assistance to the full and part-time police agencies. The 2019 Census data indicates that Steuben County is 94.4% white, 1.7% black, 1.7% Hispanic, 1.6% Asian, 1.6% mixed race and .03% Native American.

C. Agency Demographics:

The Steuben County Sheriff’s Office consists of 167 employees, the majority of which are associated with the corrections division. The patrol division consists of 38 full time deputies, corporals, sergeants, investigators and lieutenants and seven part time deputies and investigators, along with 12 seasonal school resource officers. The majority of employees are white males, the patrol division contains 1 Hispanic and three female deputies and the corrections division contains three African Americans (two female and one male) and one female Hispanic officer. Of the nine management positions, 8 are held by white males and one by a white female.

II. REFORM & REINVENTION COLLABORATION PROCESS

A. Collaborative Opt-in Approach:

The Steuben County Sheriff’s Office partnered with other villages, towns, and cities in Steuben County as a collaborative effort. Corning Incorporated, which is headquartered in Steuben County provided a resource to assist with program management and change management expertise.
